

CHURCHES URGE MANY REFORMS

8-Hour Day, 44-Hour Week, Minimum Wage Among Proposals

Associated Press Wire.

OKLAHOMA CITY, March 9.—The eight-hour day, the 44-hour week, abolition of night work for women and children, minimum wage, equal pay for women and equal pay for men at work, were some of the things urged by Clyde Armitage, member of the Industrial relation department of the Interchurch world movement, at a conference of pastors representing every section of the state and all the 20 religious denominations here.

The speaker declared that industry "is beginning to see the need of the ethical expert the same as it saw the need of the mechanized, financial and organizing expert." He said the churches would not affiliate with either the labor unions or employers' associations, but would stand behind the best in both organizations.

That hospitals and old people's homes of the churches are inadequate to serve the demands, and that 5,000 people daily were turned away from them was well illustrated by E. S. Collier, assistant supervisor of the hospital and home survey department of the interchurch movement, in presenting an illustrated lecture at the conference.

NEGRO SHOT LAST NIGHT

One Dead and Another Wounded—Suspect Not Apprehended.

Howard Challons, negro, was shot to death when called to a house at 831 East Independence, about a mile northeast of the city at 10:15 o'clock last night. Rock Mills, negro boy, was severely wounded by one of the bullets intended for Challons, according to information obtained by Deputy Sheriff Shadrack Webb, who went to the scene at once after the shooting. According to the officers, a man named "Jodie Ted" Carroll, is alleged to have done the shooting.

A gift of flowers is a compliment that cannot be misunderstood. It indicates that you believe the friends you send them to appreciate beauty and sentiment above sordid calculation and extrinsic worth. Flowers are worth far more than they cost. You will find them inexpensive if you visit this garden spot.
